

NETWORKING ORGANIZATIONS/RESOURCES

Career Connection

Ph: 214-739-7153

<http://www.careerconnection.org>

Purpose: Brings 300+ members together to network, and includes weekly workshop topics such as resume writing and recruiter perspectives. Meets weekly, open to anyone.

Financial Executives Institute (FEI)

Ph: (469)241-0079

www.financialexecutives.org

Purpose: Networking and advocacy association for senior level finance executives.

NOTE: Requires members meet senior title and company size criteria, annual dues required.

Financial Executives Networking Group (FENG)

Moderator: Bob Walker

Email: rbobwalker@gmail.com

Purpose: Assists financial/accounting professionals (both working and in transition) with networking efforts. Meets monthly.

NOTE: Requires members to have been in CFO or Controller level positions, and requires sponsorship by a current member.

Frisco Connect

<https://www.stonebriar.org/helping-others/community-care/frisco-connect/>

Purpose: Networking and skill building meeting for those in job transitions. Meetings frequently have representatives from area corporations looking to hire new employees.

Institute of Management Accountants (IMA)

Ph: (800)638-4427

Purpose: Offers networking and continuing professional education opportunities for finance/accounting professionals. Meets monthly, fee-based membership.

<http://www.dallasima.com/welcome.htm>

Real Estate Networking Group (RENG)

Moderator: Dan Newell

Email: dnewell10@charter.net

Purpose: Focuses on helping real estate professionals with networking and career transition efforts. Meets weekly, open to all real estate professionals.

Southlake Focus Group

Email: SouthlakeFocusGroup-owner@yahoogroups.com

www.southlakefocusgroup.com

Purpose: Serves as independent networking group for professionals in transition from all functional disciplines. Meets weekly, open to anyone.

St. Andrew United Methodist Church

<http://www.standrewumc.org/finance-career-care>

Purpose: Free, weekly support/coaching group helping those who are out of work or “mis-employed” and seeking a career change. Open to the community at no cost.